Poudre River Irregulars Jazz Band

The Poudre River Irregulars are a colorful jazz ensemble that plays New Orleans and Dixieland jazz and trad jazz in all its forms. They are noted for their exuberant energy and sound musicianship. Drawing much of their inspiration from Louis Armstrong and Jelly Roll Morton, they play a wide variety of traditional jazz, from ragtime through the classics of the twenties and thirties up to early swing. Whatever they play, their music is always upbeat and joyful. Based in Fort Collins, Colorado, this popular band plays for concerts, dances, and private engagements all over the Northern Colorado region.

July 24, 25 and 26 – Evergreen Jazz Festival

<https://evergreenjazz.org>

When it all started, many in the jazz world must have thought, "That Colorado altitude has taken its toll on those guys. Start a traditional jazz festival in the new millennium?" But a small group of dedicated jazz lovers did just that, and to the amazement of many, this July we present the twenty third rendition of the Evergreen Jazz Festival. It promises to be another outstanding event, living up to the enthusiastic description by a national columnist as "the best jazz festival anywhere!" Just like jazz, every year brings a new variety of styles and musicians. Enjoy the mountain town of Evergreen while listening to After Midnight, Carl Sonny Leyland Trio, Jon-Erik Kellso and the EAreRegulars, Floyd Domino's Western Swing All Stars featuring Elana James, Le Jazz Hot, Floyd Domino's Western Swing All Stars featuring Elana James, Danny Coots' Rocky Mountain Rascals, the Poudre River Irregulars, the Queen City Jazz Band with Wende Harston, and more!

Please consider becoming a volunteer for the Denver Jazz Club! we particularly need people willing to work the door at our monthly events, and we also have some vacancies on our board of directors. Talk to any of our board members about participating to help keep classic jazz alive! Membership application online at denverjazzclub.com
