Denver JAZZ Club NEWS

Join us Sunday, October 18, from 2:00 until 5:00 PM at the Westminster Elks Lodge, 3850 Elk Dr, Westminster, for music by

The Queen City Jazz Band

It's hard to believe that the Queen City Jazz Band has been a favorite in Denver since the 1950s, but it's true! The band was established as part of the nationwide Traditional Jazz Revival movement, which began in the late 1930s, and has continued into the present day. They return to entertain us, with leader Bill Clark, tuba; Kevin Bollinger, trumpet; Jeremy Wendelin, clarinet, Eric Staffeldt, trombone; Hank Troy, piano; Rory Thomas, banjo; Tony Pantelis, drums, and vocalist Wende Harston at the October Denver Jazz Club session.

You'll hear old favorite songs that have been in their repertoire for years, and some newer material they've been working on.

The student band from the University of Colorado – Denver previously known as the Claim Jumpers – has been renamed the Lynx Jazz Ensemble. They will be joining us to play between sets.
